EN.601.419/EN.601.619 Assignment 1

Final Exam	Due: 12pm ET, May 12, 2020

Instructions. Please carefully read the instructions below. Failure to comply with any of the instructions below may result in us being unable to accept or grade your exam. These instructions apply from 9am, May 12 until 12pm, May 12. If you agree and follow the instructions, please print your name below and turn this page in with your exam. If you do not agree or follow the instructions, please do not turn in this exam. Exams without a signature will not be graded.

- This exam is "openbook," which means you are permitted to use any materials from your own notes from the course, the papers you reviewed, and anything on the course website and its Piazza page.

- The exam must be taken completely alone. Showing it or discussing it with anyone is strictly forbidden.

- You may not consult with any other person regarding the exam. You may not check your exam answers with any person. You may not discuss any of the materials or concepts with any other person.

- You may not consult any external resources. This means no Internet searches, materials from other classes or books or any notes you have taken in other classes, etc. You may not use Google or any other search engines for any reason. You may not use any shared documents including Google documents.

- Your work must be original, and you may not solicit or obtain assistance from or provide assistance to other people for any specific content on the exam. Activities considered cheating include (but are not limited to) copying or closely paraphrasing content from websites, discussing exam questions with other students, and asking for help with specific questions on Internet forums. All exams are checked for originality and copied content and anyone found cheating will be assigned a failing score for the exam.

- The exam should be submitted via email by 12pm on May 12, 2020 to the instructor: soudeh@cs.jhu.edu. Please email the instructor if you are unable to submit the exam at that time.

I have read and followed the instructions above.
